Minutes of the meeting on Students' Satisfaction Survey
(held on 06.11.2023 in IQAC office)

A meeting involving all the IQAC members and presided over by its chairperson/Principal, Prof. Arun Kumar Dixit, was convened on 06.11.2023 to discuss the report on student satisfaction survey conducted annually to assess the institutional Teaching learning process.

The student feedback reports of previous years were discussed with all the members and a couple of student representatives. The outcomes of the discussion were noted for necessary remedial action against the concerns received from student stakeholders as feedbacks.

The IQAC coordinator Prof. P.K. Tripathi assured that the IQAC shall share the concerns raised with the departmental in-charges and the faculty members in subsequent departmental meetings for needed remedial action. Further, NAAC related documentation process was also discussed.

The meeting concluded on a positive note to press promptness in the functioning of the IQAC to meet its mandated obligations of ensuring and improving institutional quality and standards.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

STUDENT'S FEEDBACK

The results of the students' feedback on the teaching, learning environment in the college, their perception regarding the institutional climate, safety and security procured via student satisfaction survey during the previous year, 2022-23 as well as meeting with student representatives, were shared across the members of IQAC in meeting. The significant patterns were identified. The outcomes of the discussion were noted for making necessary improvements.

IQAC shared these concerns with the department in charge and faculty members in subsequent departmental meetings to take remedial actions.
