

Dr. Nisha Gupta is professor in the department of English, D.A-V. College, Kanpur. She has the teaching experience of more than 31 years in UG and PG classes and for the last few years Ph.D. classes also and she has also delivered lectures as guest faculty in institutes like HBTU. Her academic profile is marked with impressive credentials, including Ph.D. in English on Afro-American fiction with special reference to Richard Wright, Langston Hughes and James Baldwin. Her post doctoral research work includes two minor research projects aided by University Grants Commission. She has a long experience of research supervision, spanning over more than fifteen years, having six research scholars; out of them three candidates have been awarded Ph.D. degree. She has written more than twenty five research papers published in various reputed journals and books. She has presented a number of scholarly research papers at many workshops and seminars. Apart from teaching, she has been associated with the cultural committee to enhance the overall development of students' personality and also promoted their participation in debate, quiz, essay writing and other soft skills related activities. As an active member of Innerwheel club for some time, she has been associated with community and social work also. Her motto is selfless dedication to the betterment of human beings and for her teaching profession has been instrumental in materialising her wish.