Important Notice

To,
All the UG and PG first semester students.

The Reliance Group has approached our college with an offer of scholarship through its partner platform, budy4study, under its CSR (Corporate Social responsibility) scheme. Under the scheme, selected first semester UG and PG students of all streams shall be provided scholarship to the tune of Rs 200000 and 500000 respectively over the period of the course. It's a great opportunity for the students to earn monetary support from the corporate body.

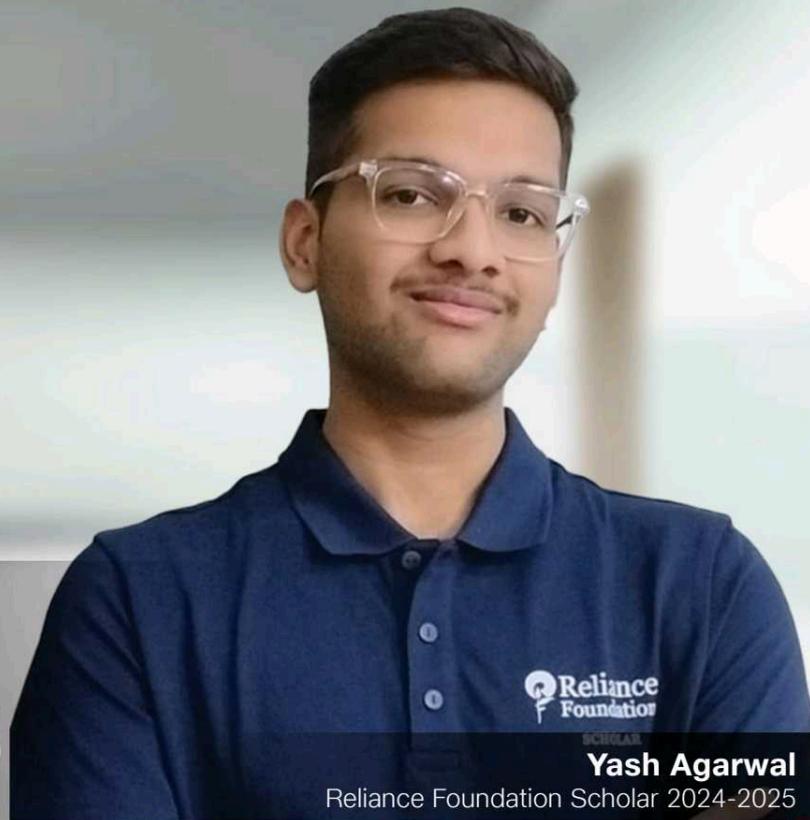

As the first step to implement the scheme, the officials of the partner platform will conduct a seminar involving all the students on September 29, 2025 at college auditorium from 12 noon to 01 pm where they shall detail everything about the scheme and other modalities to win the scholarship. All the willing students of the said semester and course must ensure their presence at the seminar half an hour before the scheduled start. Attached herewith is the mailed communication of the partner platform.
